

Kentucky Perinatal Quality Collaborative

KyPQC BULLETIN

The KyPQC is growing!
We are excited to welcome our new epidemiologist,
Victoria Farley, MPH!

Harm Reduction Summit

Registration is open for the 2024 Kentucky Harm Reduction Summit, scheduled for Thursday, June 20, at the Marriott Louisville East in Louisville, KY. Agenda items will be focused on Harm Reduction Care Navigation Training, with continuing education available. Space is limited and there is no cost to attend. Click the box to register.

Learn More

KyPQC Highlighted

The KyPQC was profiled in “The Practical Playbook III: Working Together to Improve Maternal Health,” The section, “Leveraging Short-Term Resources to Achieve Long-Term and Sustainable Perinatal Quality in Kentucky,” was authored by KyPQC Central Office. To order this book in paperback or as a free PDF, click below.

Learn More

KyPQC Webinar Series

Amber Pendleton, MD and Chelsea Harrod will present “Understanding Black Parental Concerns about CPS Involvement to Improve Pediatric Care” on Friday, March 22, at 1PM ET. Register by clicking the box below. Learners may earn CEUs through a separate registration for Train Course #1118013.

Learn More

KyPQC Next Steps

- The KyPQC Central Office is filling positions! We look forward to introducing new staff in the coming months.
- The Steering Committee will meet Thursday, March 14, from 4-5 PM ET.
- The next KyPQC First Initiatives Team Talk is scheduled for Wednesday, March 27, from 12-1 PM ET.
- Click here if you are interested in joining the Kentucky Maternal Morbidity and Mortality (KyMMM) Task Force. The next meeting is scheduled for Thursday, April 18, from 3-5 PM ET.

